SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Tuesday, September 11

11 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Registration

Pre-function area - 13th Floor

Noon - 2:15 p.m.

Food Safety Priorities Across Regulatory Agencies

Hear from an invited government official and learn about the food safety priorities of FDA and USDA and how they align with the priorities of the frozen food industry.

2:30 - 4 p.m.

Nutrition Policy Under the Trump Administration

Both USDA and FDA are pushing ahead with measures aimed at promoting innovation in product development to encourage healthier choices for the consumer. From cleaner labeling to sodium reduction to the upcoming dietary guidelines, there are many initiatives under way that will impact frozen foods sold into retail, foodservice and school meals.

4 - 5 p.m.

Impact of Trade Wars on Frozen Foods

NAFTA renegotiations and the mounting dispute over steel trade are leading to tariffs on U.S. exports of agricultural commodities and finished foods, as well as imports of necessary product components. Join government leaders discussing how these disagreements play out in 2018 and what the impact will be on the frozen food industry. What can frozen food manufacturers do to protect their businesses from the rising costs of U.S. tariffs and retaliatory tariffs?

5:30 - 6:30 p.m.

PAC Reception featuring a member of Congress

A donation of $250 or more to FROZEN FOODPAC is suggested to attend.*

Dinner on your own

Take advantage of a free night around our nation's capital to network with colleagues and enjoy the city's vibrant restaurant scene.

Wednesday, September 12

8 – 11 a.m.

Opening Keynote Breakfast (in conjunction with the American Bakers Association)

*Hyatt Regency Washington
400 New Jersey Ave, NW*

This morning we will join forces with our friends at the American Bakers Association. Together, we will prepare to head to Capitol Hill to educate members of Congress on issues that matter most to our respective industries. For AFFI members, expect food safety and nutrition to be among our list of priorities. Learn from government affairs professionals on how to best approach your members of Congress to gain the most out of your time with them later in the afternoon.

11 a.m. - 5 p.m. Capitol Hill

Congressional Office Visits

Capitol Hill

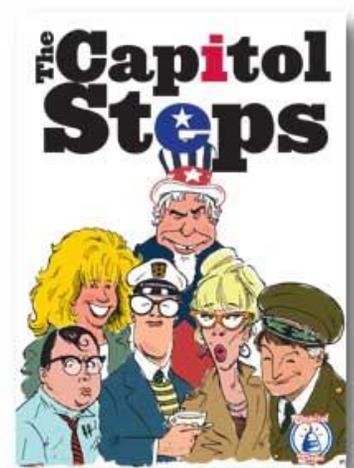

Join your AFFI peers on Capitol Hill! Visit your members of Congress and share how their decisions impact your business. AFFI will do all the scheduling for you and make sure you are well prepared. Lunch on your own.

6:30-8:30 p.m.

AFFI Government Action Summit Dinner & Entertainment featuring The Capitol Steps

*National Union Building
918 F Street NW
Washington, DC 20004*

Over 30 years ago, the Capitol Steps began as a group of Senate staffers who set out to satirize the very people and places that employed them. In the years that followed, many of the Steps ignored conventional wisdom ("Don't quit your day job!"), and although not all the current members of the Steps are former Capitol Hill staffers, taken together the performers have worked a total of eighteen Congressional offices and represent 62 years of collective House and Senate staff experience. Since they began they have recorded over 35 albums, and have
